INTRODUCTION

September 2006

Fellow Scouters,

As Scouters, we are committed to extending the Scouting program to all eligible youth. We all work hard to ensure that we recruit Tiger Cubs and Cub Scouts every year. Scouters work diligently to deliver a quality program to our Cubs. However, introducing young boys to Scouting through the Cub program is only part of our goal. The Cub program is only the trailhead. The real challenges, adventure, and valuable life lessons are found in the Boy Scout program along the trail to Eagle Scout. Therefore, is it a shame that even one Webelos Scout fails to make the transition from Cub Scouts to Boy Scouts?

The purpose of this Webelos to Scout transition guide is to help you ensure that your Webelos Scouts have the best possible opportunity and encouragement to make the transition to Boy Scouts. The use of this guide is not mandatory but it is strongly encouraged that you consider using the guide to fulfill your commitment to our youth – every Webelos Scout should become a Boy Scout.

Thanks for all you do to ensure that we deliver a quality Scouting program. Thanks to all who contributed to this guide. Special thanks to Pete O'Malley, an Eagle Scout, Red-Tailed Hawk District Boy Scout Roundtable Commissioner and dedicated Scouter.

Yours in Scouting,

Keith Sickendick

OVERVIEW

The Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan is a cooperative effort between the Cub Scout pack and the Boy Scout troop that results in increased transition of Webelos Scouts to Boy Scouting. It gives Webelos Scouts and their families an awareness of the Boy Scout program, youth leadership, the Boy Scout advancement process and an appreciation of the Boy Scout troop's organization as well as the relationships. Studies have shown that when the plan is used, a higher percentage of Webelos Scouts move into the troop. Those Webelos transition more easily and eagerly.

Every graduating Webelos Scout deserves the opportunity to continue his Scouting experience as a member of a Boy Scout troop. Your help can make a difference.

Here's a plan that bridges the gap between Webelos Scouting and Boy Scouting. It results in better prepared and more enthusiastic new members for the troop, a strong feeling of success for the pack and most important of all an outstanding new Scouting experience for the boys.

Many Webelos Scouts go on to Boy Scouting with no help at all, but a lot of them need to know more about their opportunities for fun and adventure in the troop.

The purpose of the Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan is to:

- ✓ Give every Webelos Scout a sampling of the troop program, troop leadership, advancement opportunities and the fun and excitement of Boy Scouting.
- ✓ Let the Webelos Scout know that he is wanted.

The boy's progress toward the Webelos badge and the Arrow of Light Award introduces him to some of the basic elements of Boy Scouting, and gives him an early taste of Scouting skills and the Boy Scout advancement program. He learns more about the troop through joint den/troop activities which let him see boy leadership at work and a sense of his own potential as a leader. He becomes more confident and enthusiastic about his Scouting future as he becomes more familiar with the boys and adult leaders of the troop he will be joining.

An effective Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan is essential for retaining our current Cub Scouts by moving them into a Boy Scout troop. The transition from Cub Scouts to Boy Scouts is where we lose a large percentage of our membership. This is due to a number of factors. To have an effective plan, each of these reasons needs to be addressed.

REASONS WEBELOS DO NOT GO ONTO BOY SCOUTS

INCREASED COMPETITION FROM OTHER ACTIVITIES

When boys are in the first grade and ready for Tiger Cubs, there are not many activities to compete with Scouting for his time and attention. As he gets older, more activities become available to him and compete for his time. When a boy is ready to move on from Cub Scouts, he is faced with many choices. We need to make sure that he has as much exposure to what's ahead in Scouting as he has to other activities, such as baseball, soccer, basketball, football, etc. (see Appendix IV, Boy Scout Recruiting Research Findings, for additional information).

MISUNDERSTANDING BETWEEN PARENTS AND TROOP LEADERS

The Cub Scout and Boy Scout programs are fundamentally different in that Cub Scouting is a program put on by and run by the adult volunteers. Boy Scouting, on the other hand, is designed to be a boy planned and run program with only guidance and supervision from the adult leaders. Due mostly to poor communication, enthusiastic parents of Webelos sometimes feel shut out by Boy Scout troop leaders. Once the parent is disillusioned with their worth or involvement in a new unit, their son soon follows. Webelos parents need to be educated on the differences between the programs that lead to an understanding of the Boy Scout program.

PROGRAM DIFFERENCES

Cub Scouting is an adult led, activity based program whereas Boy Scouting is a boy led, outdoor oriented program. The change in program activities can be intimidating to some boys. Sometimes, those that haven't had outdoor experiences need to be eased into the program and their parents need to have assurance that their little boy (because that is still what he is) is going to be okay.

IMPROPER ASSIMILATION INTO A TROOP

When the boys were Cubs Scouts, they were all pretty much equal level, in terms of maturity. A Scout troop, on the other hand, has a much wider and diverse spectrum of maturity levels. A troop could have young new Scouts and more mature older Scouts, who, in reality, are not boys anymore but are young men. A Webelos Scout thrust into a troop of much older boys will many times be intimidated and may be easily lost if not properly handled.

LACK OF INTEREST FROM TROOPS

Sadly, many troops do not actively recruit Cub Scouts. If a troop doesn't take an active role in the Webelos program, many boys will move on to other activities that have shown interest in them (for the most part, they won't come looking for you). Boy Scout leaders can't assume that everyone will automatically look to move on to Scouting. In addition, boys will almost always follow their friends. If the troop is not actively pursuing these boys, a single boy will be very reluctant to go where he doesn't know anyone.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE

The key to success in any activity in Scouting is preparation and planning. Like the Boy Scout motto says:

“Be Prepared”

We must therefore prepare and plan for the transition well before it occurs.

This means that we must start our plan when a boy "becomes" a Webelos, not when he is ready to cross-over. In essence, the Webelos' transition will begin long before he realizes or recognizes it. Remember, if you fail to plan you plan to fail.

HOW THE PLAN WORKS

The Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan offers a clear path into Boy Scouting for every Webelos Scout, beginning early in his fifth-grade year. By linking his Webelos den and a Boy Scout troop, he is provided an opportunity, through joint activities, to sample the fun of Boy Scouting. As his Webelos advancement plan helps him prepare for Boy Scout advancement, he might also learn more about Boy Scouting through council and district activities designed to support the plan.

In the late winter/early spring, after he has earned the Arrow of Light, he graduates with the other members of his den into the troop.

THE DEN/TROOP PARTNERSHIP

The key factor in this process is the establishment of a working partnership between the Webelos den and the Boy Scout troop that most of the Webelos Scouts will join. This partnership should be firmly in place by the start of the Webelos Scouts' second year. Every second year Webelos den should be linked to a troop, and every troop should have one or more Webelos den(s) as partners. Of course, in many cases these partnerships already exist, and have been effective for many years. But some Webelos dens are not linked to troops, and need help from their district in establishing a partnership. Similarly, troops with no "feeder" Webelos dens might need help as well.

No Webelos Scout should start his second year without a clear path ahead of him that leads to a Boy Scout troop.

JOINT ACTIVITIES

The partner troop may provide Webelos den chiefs for the pack, as well as assistance in planning and conducting outdoor activities, but the most important result of the den/troop partnership is the experience of joint activities.

The second year Webelos den and the troop should hold several activities together, including at least one joint campout. The den could also join the troop in a court of honor, campfire program, day hike, field trip, or joint good turn for the chartered organization or their community. Visiting a camporee or other district or council Boy Scout event, as guests of the troop might also be included.

Through these joint activities, Webelos Scouts not only learn of the fun of Boy Scouting, they also get acquainted with the individual Scouts in the troop. When the time comes to move into Boy Scouting, it is no longer a leap into the unknown, but a step into an already familiar and friendly situation.

WEBELOS SCOUT ADVANCEMENT

The Webelos Scout advancement pattern has been developed to lead naturally to earning the Webelos badge in the first year and the Arrow of Light Award in the second year, but still allows boys who join the Webelos den as fifth-graders (or 10-year-olds) to earn both ranks. By following the pattern detailed in the Webelos Scout Program Helps, the Webelos den leader will ensure that most Webelos Scouts will earn the Webelos badge in January of their first year and the Arrow of Light Award in January or February of the second year.

LATE WINTER/EARLY SPRING GRADUATION

Summer camp is a vital part of the Boy Scout experience, particularly for the new Scout. The expanded Webelos Scout program gives us a great opportunity to guarantee that graduating Webelos Scouts participate in summer camp by getting them into the troop in time to prepare for Boy Scout camp. Webelos Scouts may become Boy Scouts as soon as they have earned the Arrow of Light Award. For most Webelos Scouts, this happens in January or February of their second year.

FROM DEN TO PATROL

Webelos Scouting and Boy Scouting have been designed to neatly dovetail together, and the Webelos den can move right into the troop as a new Scout patrol. When the whole den moves into Boy Scouting together, they continue to provide friendship and support to each other, which allows each boy to make a smooth transition with his friends into the troop. As such, the second year Webelos den should pick a patrol name and begin to practice the patrol method.

In summary, the Webelos to Scout transition plan links second year Webelos dens and Boy Scout troops together, encourages joint activities, introduces Webelos Scouts to Boy Scouting, and ensures the graduation of the Webelos den into the troop in late winter/early spring.

HOW THE TRANSITION PLAN HELPS THE BOY

Many Webelos Scouts will go on into Scouting with no help at all. But at least half of them need to know more about their opportunities for fun and adventure in the Scout troop.

That's really the purpose of the Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan. It gives the Webelos Scout a sampling of the troop program, troop leadership, personal advancement, training and learning experience and an appreciation of troop organization and relationships.

It will be the boy's (and his family's) decision, so we owe it to them to demonstrate some of the fun experiences and to let him know that he is wanted. Certain key Scout leaders are better able to show the Webelos Scouts the various elements of Scouting than others. So we need to include everyone, starting with the Webelos Scouts themselves. That makes the transition plan an unlimited opportunity. The boy's Webelos badge and Arrow of Light Award reach into the requirements bordering on Scouting skills, giving him a view of Scouting advancement. He sees boy leadership at work and senses his own potential as a junior leader. He becomes more confident and enthusiastic about the patrol method, a district camporee, summer camp, and maybe even a national or world jamboree.

In short, the boy's desire for troop membership is the result of this gradual change in appetite for troop-oriented activities.

HOW THE TRANSITION PLAN HELPS THE LEADERS

For the Scoutmaster, it means more boys. Boys already versed in Boy Scouting and Tenderfoot requirements as well as the boys whose families have been supporting pack activities while they were Cub Scouts.

For the Webelos den leader, it means fulfillment. It means direct help with advancement requirements, father/son overnights, as well as a pleasant association with the troop. The time spent with a boy is productive as seen in the boy's desire to continue.

For the Cubmaster, it means assurance of a stable Webelos den, more graduations and better ceremonies, the ready access to den chiefs and pack meetings that feature a lively Webelos den and Boy Scout troop guests.

We can only instill the values of Boy Scouting into the lives of boys who become Boy Scouts.

PUTTING THE WEBELOS TO SCOUT TRANSITION PLAN TO WORK

With the help of your unit commissioner, make a list of nearby troops with leaders' names, addresses, and phone numbers. The unit commissioner can help bring Cubmasters and Webelos den leaders together with Scoutmasters for a meeting. If your unit commissioner is not available, someone from your pack will need to take the initiative to get things going. The purpose of this first meeting is to get acquainted, define responsibilities in the Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan, discuss leadership needs, and make plans to recruit the necessary leaders. It is also a time to talk about opportunities for joint Webelos den/troop activities.

Develop a plan for regular communication between key leaders in the Webelos to Scout transition plan, to keep everyone informed of graduations/cross-overs, joint activities and opportunities.

Set up a tentative calendar of joint Webelos den/troop activities for second year Webelos Scouts. Hold the Webelos annual program planning meeting, incorporating the joint activities in the annual plan. Share the Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan with the chartered organization representative and let him or her know how they can help.

PACK RESPONSIBILITIES

It should be the goal of the Cubmaster and Webelos den leaders to graduate every Webelos Scout into a Boy Scout troop. The key to accomplishing this is to begin promoting Boy Scouting when Cub Scouts are still in their Tiger, Wolf, and Bear dens and to sell the sizzle of the great outdoors. Scouting should be viewed as an ongoing adventure, and the progression should be as normal as moving from elementary school to middle school.

1) Develop a working relationship with the leadership of a Boy Scout troop or troops in the area. Most troops should have either an assistant Scoutmaster or a committee member assigned to new Scouts. Your unit commissioner can help put you in contact with troop leaders.

2) Compare calendars of troop and pack activities to coordinate activities. Community events can be done together, and planning can help prevent conflicts in use of equipment and facilities.

3) Work with troop leaders to secure den chiefs for each Webelos den and Cub Scout den.

4) Work with troop leaders to plan and conduct Webelos overnight activities.

5) Work with troop leaders to plan visits to troop meetings. Never show up without first calling in advance.

6) Invite the Scoutmaster and troop youth leaders to any special pack activities. This will help create familiarity and a level of comfort for the Webelos Scouts and their parents as they ease into the troop.

7) Plan a meaningful graduation/cross-over ceremony. Ensure that troop leaders are present to accept the Webelos Scouts as they graduate to Boy Scouting. The local Order of the Arrow lodge can often be a valuable resource in conducting ceremonies.

8) Webelos leaders should be strongly encouraged to move into the troop with the boys, either as assistant Scoutmasters or troop committee members. This will give the new Scouts a familiar face at troop meetings and a connecting link to Boy Scouting.

LEADERSHIP ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

EVERYONE IN YOUR PACK HAS A ROLE TO PLAY

- Cubmaster
- Webelos den leader
- Webelos den chief
- Unit commissioner
- Parents
- Boy

Cubmaster/Webelos Den Leader's Role

- Most influential in the Boy's preparation
- Should have the Webelos function as a patrol
- Should insure that the boys attend summer camp
- Should verify the presence of the necessary Scout skills
- Should attend roundtables and get to know the Scoutmasters
- Attend a troop meeting and recruit a den chief
- Plan the graduation/cross-over ceremony and promote troop summer activities
- Verify the transfer of documents (the boy's records)

Webelos Den Chief's Role

- Act as a resource for scout skills
- Help establish the Webelos patrol and promote scout spirit
- Help to operate the Webelos patrol
- Assist in the Arrow of Light and cross-over ceremonies

The Unit Commissioner's Role

- Determine which troops can accommodate more Scouts
- Work with the district executive to create more units where necessary
- Ensure graduations/cross-overs are planned
- Track graduating Webelos and ensure they get registered as Boy Scouts
- Attend graduations/cross-overs
- Try and determine causes behind why particular Webelos do not join a troop

CUBMASTER'S/SECOND YEAR WEBELOS LEADER'S TIMETABLE

TARGET DATE	TASK
Sept./Oct	Have your den select a Scout patrol name, get patrol patches to wear, make a patrol flag, and elect a patrol leader. (check the Boy Scout Handbook for ideas).
October	Complete and return your Webelos roster (tracking sheet) to your unit commissioner or pack committee chairman by October 30th. This is very important so that troops can send you Webelos information and invite them to orientation and camp promotion meetings.
	Meet with the local Scoutmaster(s) for transition planning
Oct./Nov	Take your Webelos and their parents to visit a troop meeting. A new Scout/parent informational meeting at the troop should include summer camp plans.
	Ask the troop to appoint a Webelos den chief. This will aid the new Scouts with their transition into the troop.
December	Encourage your Webelos to make the final decision on joining a troop.
	Assist the Cubmaster in planning a top-notch, personalized graduation/cross-over for the February pack meeting.
February	Graduate/cross-over your Webelos into Boy Scouts. Have them complete a Scout application and register with the troop. New Scouts should have the Boy Scout Handbook at this time.
	Webelos should attend traders' rendezvous/Klondike derby with their new troop.
Feb./Mar.	Be sure the new Scouts have a schedule and begin attending troop activities. Encourage parents to get involved with the troop committee.
	Webelos leaders should talk to the Scoutmaster about continuing to work with the new Scouts as a patrol adviser. This will help boys become comfortable in the new troop.
	Help as needed with any final details for summer camp preparedness.
	Follow up with any of your Webelos as to why they did not yet join a troop.

Note: Get the name of the Scoutmaster(s) from your unit commissioner or district executive.

KEY LEADERS IN THE TRANSITION PLAN

The Cubmaster/Webelos den leader provide an introduction to Boy Scouting to every second year Webelos Scout. This is done through the Webelos advancement program, visits and joint activities with the troop, and an impressive graduation ceremony with the entire second year Webelos den moving into the troop as a new Scout patrol.

The Webelos den chief is a registered Boy Scout, active in the troop and selected by the Scoutmaster to serve as a program assistant to the Webelos den leader. He should be skilled in conducting ceremonies, leading songs, teaching skills, giving demonstrations, leading games, and helping to prepare the Webelos Scouts for the troop experience ahead. By his example, he may be the single most important person in influencing Webelos Scouts to join the troop.

The unit commissioner provides continuing program support to pack and troop, and helps establish working relationships between the troop and the second year Webelos dens. The unit commissioner also encourages and supports joint activities as well as graduation and promotes participation in district and council transition activities such as Webelos Woods and Webelos Walkabout.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN A BOY SCOUT TROOP

The Webelos program is designed to be a transition between Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts. The goal of the Webelos den leader is to get the Webelos into a Boy Scout troop.

The majority of the time spent in the first year of Webelos is to earn activity pins and to work on their Webelos badge.

The focus of the second year Webelos den changes from the first year. In addition to completing the Arrow of Light requirements, the second year Webelos den should visit several Boy Scout troops so that the Scouts can decide which troop to join.

TIMING CONSIDERATIONS

It is better to schedule cross-over into Boy Scouts in late winter/early spring to allow the Scouts time to adjust to the Boy Scout Program and to the troop. Webelos, who cross-over late in the Scouting year may have a difficult time adjusting to the Boy Scout program and may not be able to attend Summer Camp as a result.

Which Boy Scout troop to join is a personal decision and each Scout needs to decide which one to join. It is okay if all of the Scouts join different troops as long as they feel that the troop is right for them. Do not make this a group decision, instead give them the time and the tools to make their own decision. Each Boy Scout troop has its own personality, each one is different. The only way to discover which one is right for you is to visit as many as practical, (4-5) and then to narrow the list down and visit the "finalists" a second time.

USING THE TROOP VISIT CHECKLIST (see Appendix I)

- ✓ Location: Just like in real estate, location is important as troop meetings are typically held on a weekly basis. It is more important to find the "right" troop than to select the one closest to home.
- ✓ Active: Review the schedule of events and get a feel for how active the troop is. Talk to the Scouts and find out which outings they liked the most and why.
- ✓ Would you consider the troop to be a generalist or specialist: What types of trips have they taken? Do activities have a central theme or do they offer a wide range of experiences for the Scouts?
- ✓ Active outdoor program: Does the troop maintain an - active outdoor and advancement program? In reviewing the schedule of events, are they going back to the same places over and over or are they trying new places? What do they offer the older Scouts, (in order to maintain interest in the program)? Have they attended any of the High Adventure Bases, (Philmont Scout Ranch, Florida Sea Base, Northern Tier Canoe Base)?

- ✓ Scouts appear to have fun: Subjective, but you can get a feel for this based on attendance & energy levels. Talk to the Scouts and find out what they most like about the troop.
 - ✓ Size: The smaller troops may offer more of a personal touch. The larger troops may offer a wider range of activities to choose from. The Boy Scout troops are broken down into patrols of around 6-8 Scouts, similar to a Cub Scout den so even with the larger troops the Scouts will be able to bond with others.
 - ✓ Balanced: Does the troop consist of only older boys, (who may leave soon) or are all age groups represented?
 - ✓ Scout led: The troop should be "boy led." The senior patrol leader should be in charge of the meetings. The "chain-of-command" should run through the patrol leaders. The adults should be there as resources, NOT leaders. The only time they should get involved in making decisions is as a reality check (done by the Scoutmaster with the patrol leaders' council) and if issues arise regarding safety.
- To determine some of this, watch the meeting. Ask who plans the troop's annual calendar. Ask about the "patrol leaders' council" and how it works.
- The concept of a Scout unit being run by boys is very hard for some Cub Scouters to accept, but that's the way Boy Scouting is designed to run, and that's how the boys get the most out of the program.

ADULT PARTICIPATION

What are the troop's expectations for the parents regarding campouts and adult leadership positions? Are the parents expected to drive and/or camp with the Scouts from time to time?

What adult leadership positions are available? What is the level of involvement of women in the troop? Are women allowed to go on weekend campouts?

COUNCIL AND DISTRICT SUPPORT

There are several ways that the Heart of America Council and the Red-Tailed Hawk District can help packs and troops with the Webelos to Boy Scout transition process:

Webelos tracking - Every district needs to have a system to identify and track each second year Webelos Scout to ensure that he has the opportunity to continue his Scouting experience as a Boy Scout. Follow-up should be planned to maintain contact with each boy until he is enrolled in a troop. This may be assigned as a responsibility of the commissioner staff or the membership committee.

Webelos Woods - Conducted on a district-wide basis, Webelos Woods is an outdoor program activity designed to introduce graduating Webelos Scouts and their parents to the fun and excitement of Boy Scouting.

Joint roundtables - A joint roundtable, where Cubmasters and Webelos den leaders are invited to participate in a special Boy Scout roundtable event, is an excellent way to match up Webelos dens with troops in the transition partnership.

Webelos Walkabout - In the fall of each year Boy Scout troops actively recruit Webelos Scouts. At the event Webelos Scouts have the opportunity to see what each troop has to offer. This helps the Webelos Scout to make a more informed decision about which troop is right for him.

IN SUMMARY

The Webelos to Boy Scout transition plan links second year Webelos dens and Boy Scout troops, encourages joint activities, introduces Webelos Scouts to Boy Scouting and ensures the graduation of the Webelos den into the troop in late winter/early spring. Foremost, our goal is to give every Webelos Scout the opportunity to continue his Scouting experience as a Boy Scout.

APPENDIX II

SAMPLE CROSS-OVER CEREMONY

Setting: A bridge is in the center stage. One side of the bridge is represented as the Cub Scout side and the other side as the Boy Scout side. You can use your imagination on how to symbolize each side so it is apparent which side is which. Use of Boy Scouts with candles lighting the path is very impressive. Cubmaster and Scoutmaster stand on appropriate sides.

CUBMASTER: Tonight we mark a great occasion, the graduation of _____ Webelos into Boy Scout Troop _____. We are sad to see them leave because they have been a great help to our pack, but we are happy for them because they are going on to the great adventure of Boy Scouting. These Webelos have worked hard for this night and have advanced well. As a symbol of their hard work, each Webelos will be given an arrow. As I call your name, will each Webelos come forward with your parent(s)?

(Call each boy's name off.)

Reader: The arrow alone gives meaning to each of these Scouts. The wooden shaft gives the arrow strength; just like the strength the Scout Promise gives each boy. The fletching helps guide the arrow on a straight and true path; just like the Scout Law guides the Scout on a straight and true path. The arrowhead points the way to the target; just like Webelos badge and Arrow of Light requirements have pointed the Scout to the ways of Boy Scouting.

Each arrow has these parts, but each arrow is different, it is individual. Each arrow represents his individual trail through Cub Scouting.

(Give each boy his arrow.)

It has been a long trail. As you look at the arrow you can look back and see how far you have traveled. Your first trail led you across the Bobcat Ridge, where Akela took you into the Pack as a Bobcat. The yellow mark tells that this boy completed his Bobcat requirements. You may have then climbed the steep Wolf Mountain. The red mark means he has completed the Wolf badge. After that there may be gold and silver marks for the arrow points that you may have earned. After finding your way through Bear Forest, you may have earned your Bear rank. The green mark shows you have gained your Bear achievements, and again you may have earned a gold and silver arrow points. Your trail next may have led you to Webelos Rank...first earning three activity pins shown by three black marks, then your Webelos badge, which is marked in blue. The Arrow of Light trail may have been hard and rugged. You first earned another four activity pins. Then you achieved the highest Cub Scout Achievement, the Arrow of Light, which is signified by the white marking on the arrow. The twelve beads will remind you of the twelve points of the Scout Law. The red and white feathers not only stand for the troops colors, but also for devotion and honor.

Your trail in Scouting does not end in Cub Scouting; it is only the beginning, for all of you have prepared yourself for the crossing over to Boy Scouts.

The bridge before you is a symbol of your crossing from Cub Scouting to Boy Scouting. The bridge is a structure carrying a pathway or roadway over a depression. It is a means of connection or transition from one side to another, as this bridge represents how our pack is connected to our troop. As I call each boys name, please come stand before your Cubmaster where he will remove your Webelos neckerchief.

(Cubmaster is calling over to the Scoutmaster.)

CUBMASTER: Hello, Boy Scouts of Troop _____.

SCOUTMASTER: Hello, Cub Scouts of Akela. What do you desire?

CUBMASTER: We have several Webelos who have prepared themselves for entrance into your troop.

SCOUTMASTER: Bring them and their parents forward to the bridge that joins our pack and troop. I will send two of my Scouts over to escort the boys and their parents over the bridge.

(Boy Scouts cross-over to pack's side and then escort the new Scouts and their parents to the other side.)

Webelos leader (Speaking to the Scoutmaster): These are your new Scouts, ready for the adventures ahead of them. They are going to call themselves the patrol.

Webelos leader (speaking to the boys): As I call each of your names, please come forward to your Scoutmaster, where he will place on you the neckerchief of your new troop.

(One at a time, place troop neckerchief on new Scout)

SCOUTMASTER: I'd like to welcome the new patrol and their families to our troop. (Lights on)

SCOUTMASTER: Will the troop please form your patrols. (Have SPL lead all Scouts in the Scout Promise)?

WEBELOS TRANSITION UNIT AWARD

FOR OUTSTANDING EFFORTS IN THE WEBELOS TO SCOUT TRANSITION PROCESS

The Webelos Transition Unit Award recognizes those units that extend to the Webelos a welcome and exposure to the adventure of Boy Scouting. It is a program to ensure that every opportunity is extended to a Webelos so that he can experience one of the most wholesome and character building opportunities in his formative years.

Once a unit has satisfactorily completed the requirements, the unit (packs and troops), is entitled to display the award at all unit functions.

The award has two achievement levels, the blue level award and the gold level award.

The blue level award includes a certificate and a blue streamer for the unit's flag. The gold level also includes a certificate and a gold streamer for the unit's flag.

The award is easy to earn. Most units that have an effective transition process in place will be able to complete the five (blue level award) or six (gold level award) requirements with little effort. The commissioner staff stands ready to assist and aid you with the program.

Upon completion of the requirements, unit leaders should complete the application form and forward it to their unit commissioner. The application will be processed and the awards presented at an appropriate ceremony. Any questions concerning the award requirements should be directed to the unit commissioner.

Your pack or troop is challenged to become a Webelos Transition Unit Award unit and carry on the tradition of bringing Scouting to boys. The units will receive the Webelos Transition Unit Award after the completion of the following requirements:

RED-TAILED HAWK DISTRICT WEBELOS TRANSITION UNIT AWARD

The Red-Tailed Hawk District Webelos Transition Unit Award recognizes those Cub Scout packs and Boy Scout troops that exemplify the ideals of Scouting by encouraging all Webelos Scouts to experience the adventures and values offered by Boy Scouting and providing all Webelos Scouts with the opportunity to “cross-over” into a Boy Scout troop. All requirements must be met by April 1st.

BOY SCOUT RECRUITING RESEARCH FINDINGS

Current Boy Scouts are significantly more likely than former or non-Scouts to play on an organized sports team.

Sport	Current Boy Scout	Former Boy Scout	Never been a Boy Scout
Soccer	50.7%	18.9%	17.6%
Baseball	48.8%	32.0%	22.6%
Basketball	42.3%	31.3%	17.6%
Football	40.9%	27.5%	18.4%

44% of all non-Scouts and former Scouts say that are very interested (9.5%) or somewhat interested (34.6%) in joining Boy Scouts. Of that 44%, 67% say they were never asked. That means that for every 100 youth that are NOT in Boy Scouting 44 are interested, 14 were asked to join and 30 were not.

Boy Scouts need to do a better job marketing our program to Jr. High age youth and asking them to join our program. Local youth sports and local church organizations in almost all categories (except Web Site) do a better job in getting their word out. When asked: During the past 12 months, have you or your son received any information from the following sources about the youth groups listed?

Organization	Newspaper	Flier/ Newsletter	Family/ Friends	Web Site	Have Not Received any info.
Local Youth Sports	13.5%	46.2%	23.9%	5.2%	32.0%
Local church youth organizations	7.4%	32.5%	27.3%	3.7%	43.6%
Boy Scouts	9.7%	31.7%	23.1%	5.9%	43.8%
YMCA	14.9%	29.7%	11.9%	4.6%	45.8%
Boys and Girls Club	10.8%	17.9%	10.0%	5.0%	63.8%

When you ask: what are the most important reasons why your son has not joined Boy Scouting, the top 5 responses were:

1. Too Busy 54.2%
2. Friends not in Scouts 44.9% - Peer to peer recruiting
3. To focus more on sports 41.0% - recruiting after season is over
4. Never though about it 28.0% - ask to join
5. Never been asked 28.3% - ask to join

APPENDIX V

VALUES OF MEN AND BOYS IN AMERICA

Louis Harris and Associates have conducted a number of scientific surveys commissioned by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America. The findings show how the Scouting program helps aid in positive youth development. Sharing this information with second year Webelos parents will help them see the importance of keeping their children in the Scouting program.

- Boy Scouts with 5 or more years tenure are more likely than non-Scouts to:
 - Assume a leadership role in clubs or school organizations
 - Put the needs of others before themselves
 - Make the most honest, not the easiest, decisions
 - Value education and the environment

- Boy Scouts with 5 or more years tenure are more likely than non-Scouts to have greater future achievement:
 - They are more likely to graduate High School – 98% vs. 83%.
 - They are more likely to graduate College – 40% vs. 16%.
 - They are more likely to earn annual household incomes of $50,000+ - 33% vs. 17%.

- The Boy Scout program teaches strong personal values and character. Parents cite the following reasons for wanting their sons in the program.
 - To learn moral values – 94%
 - To learn self-reliance – 95%
 - To become involved in community service – 90%

- The Boy Scouts program gives a Scout a positive sense of self worth and usefulness.
 - 50% of Scouts indicate setting personal goals of each meeting.
 - 51% of Scouts note that they have to rely on themselves to accomplish goals at the meeting.
 - 78% agree, “Being a Scout makes me feel more confident in myself.

- The Boy Scouts program provides/enhances a caring and nurturing relationship with parents, other adults, and peers. At a typical troop meeting:
 - 58% are encouraged to do their best by a leader/adult.
 - 48% receive verbal encouragement from other Scouts.
 - 65% work together, receiving help from other Scouts

- The Scouting program enhances a boy’s desire to learn. At a typical meeting:

- 41% of Scouts teach another Scout
- 39% of Scouts learn from another Scout
- 53% learn new things

- Scouting is a productive/creative use of time. Boy Scouts agree that:
 - Scouting has taught me skills I wouldn't have learned anywhere else – 88%
 - Scouting will help me get a good job – 85%
 - Scouting will help me get into college – 83%

- The Boy Scout program teaches Social Adeptness. During a typical troop meeting, Scouts:
 - Learn to be a team player – 51%
 - Democratic decision making – 43%
 - Planning activities – 41%
 - Taking responsibility for needed supplies/equipment – 31%
